

FILING YOUR WEEKLY CLAIMS

In order to be paid, you must file weekly or biweekly claims for each week that you are unemployed or make less than your weekly benefit amount. When filing the first three weeks on an initial claim, you may file weekly. To continue filing weekly, your correspondence preference must be email.

Click on the button next to the week you wish to claim for benefits.

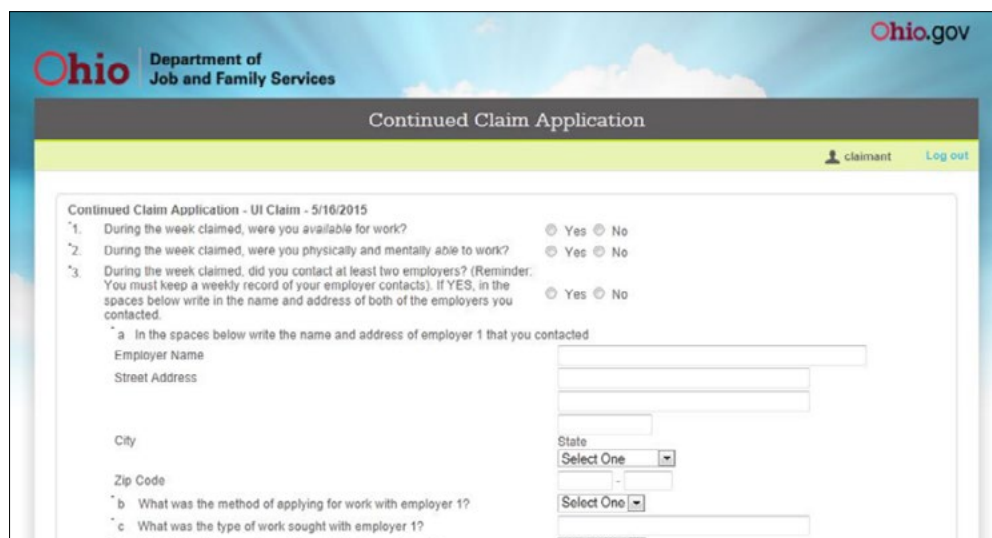

To file a weekly claim, log in at unemployment.ohio.gov and click on the button next to the week you wish to claim, as shown above.

Weeks must be claimed in chronological order (oldest week to the most current week). Failure to claim the weeks in order may prevent you from filing future claims online.

The questions on this page may differ depending on your work-search requirements.

Answer all questions honestly and correctly. Federal and state laws require mandatory penalties for claimants who make false statements to obtain benefits. Click the Next button to advance to the next screen.
